

Beyaz & Patel, Inc. (Walnut Creek, CA) is acquired by TMAD Taylor & Gaines, Inc. (Pasadena, CA)

MCLEAN, VA (September 2009) – Beyaz & Patel, a 25-person structural engineering firm specializing in infrastructure projects such as water/wastewater facilities and transportation, with offices in California, Oregon, and Washington, was acquired by TMAD Taylor & Gaines (TTG). With a professional staff of 300 and offices in Anaheim, Oakland, Ontario, Pasadena, Phoenix, Riverside, San Diego and Thousand Oaks, TMAD Taylor & Gaines has established itself as a full service engineering firm providing complete engineering services in structural, electrical, mechanical, plumbing, civil, and telecommunication; including fire protection, security, sustainable design, energy analysis, building investigative work, energy conservation, utility infrastructure, and LEED certification services. Beyaz & Patel is to become the infrastructure group for TTG.

Matheson Financial Advisors successfully initiated and negotiated the transaction on behalf of Beyaz & Patel as their financial and M&A advisor. Matheson Financial Advisors is a corporate financial advisory and investment banking firm providing a broad range of services including business valuations, ownership transition planning, mergers and acquisitions consulting, and other advisory services for architecture, engineering, environmental and construction firms.

For more information, please visit www.mathesonadvisors.com or contact Elizabeth Burnside at 703-760-9120.

###